

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 29, 2024

The New York Botanical Garden Announces Major Floral Exhibitions for 2025

The Orchid Show: Mexican Modernism* Promises a Breathtaking Display of Orchids in a Sensory Journey to Mexico City, from February 15 through April 27, 2025

Van Gogh: Painting with Flowers* Will Revel in the Color and Beauty of the Natural World that Inspired the Iconic Artist, with Botanical Displays and Large-Scale Art, from May 24 through October 26, 2025

Bronx, NY—The New York Botanical Garden (NYBG) has announced two exciting exhibitions for 2025 that will envelop visitors in stunning worlds of botanical beauty and artistic inspiration. The Orchid Show: Mexican Modernism, the 22nd edition of NYBG’s popular orchid extravaganza, will be on display from February 15 through April 27, 2025. Van Gogh: Painting with Flowers, inspired by the genius of the iconic artist Vincent van Gogh, will run from May 24 through October 26, 2025.

Experience the vibrant hues and captivating beauty of The Orchid Show: Mexican Modernism. Embark on a journey to Mexico City, where the fusion of tradition and modern artistry takes center stage amid breathtaking displays of orchids. Wander through lush landscapes adorned with thousands of orchids, showcasing Mexico’s diverse ecosystems and rich cultural history. Marvel at intricate arrangements of orchids in displays that evoke the color-saturated designs of Mexican modernist architect Luis Barragán transported to the Bronx. Whether you're a seasoned orchid enthusiast or an NYBG newcomer, this exhibition promises a feast for the senses and a celebration of Mexico's rich botanical history. On select Saturday evenings during The Orchid Show, adults 21 and over can experience Orchid Nights, a picture-perfect night out, with music and dancing, cash bars, and food available for purchase.

At Van Gogh: Painting with Flowers, visitors will revel in the color and beauty of the flowers that inspired Vincent van Gogh's iconic paintings through botanical displays and large-scale art. Roam through a breathtaking lawn adorned with vibrant, monumental sunflowers, and behold re-creations of the artist's masterpieces that have graced the walls of museums around the world, brought to life with real flowers. Surround yourself in the world of van Gogh's art and nature in this unforgettable botanical celebration of one of the world's most famous artists.

These remarkable exhibitions will excite and delight everyone who visits The New York Botanical Garden in 2025. Tickets for The Orchid Show: Mexican Modernism and Van Gogh: Painting with Flowers will go on sale in early 2025. Become an NYBG Member to see these exhibitions, as well as current programming such as NYBG's fall events and this year's Holiday Train Show®, for free along with other benefits included with membership.

For more information, go to www.nybg.org/.

About The New York Botanical Garden

The New York Botanical Garden (NYBG) has been a connective hub among people, plants, and the shared planet since 1891. For more than 130 years, NYBG has been rooted in the cultural fabric of New York City, in the heart of the Bronx, its greenest borough. NYBG has invited millions of visitors to make the Garden a part of their lives, exploring the joy, beauty, and respite of nature. NYBG's 250 acres are home to renowned exhibitions, immersive botanical experiences, art and music, and events with some of the most influential figures in plant and fungal science, horticulture, and the humanities. NYBG is also a steward of globally significant research collections, from the LuEsther T. Mertz Library collection to the plant and fungal specimens in the William and Lynda Steere Herbarium, the largest such collection in the Western Hemisphere.

The plant people of NYBG—dedicated horticulturists, enthusiastic educators, and scientific adventurers—are committed to helping nature thrive so that humanity can thrive. They believe in their ability to make things better, teaching tens of thousands of kids and families each year about the importance of safeguarding the environment and healthy eating. Expert scientists work across the city, the nation, and the globe to document the plants and fungi of the world—and find actionable, nature-based solutions to the planet's dual climate and biodiversity crises. With eyes always looking forward, they train the next generation of botanists, gardeners, landscape designers, and environmental stewards, ensuring a green future for all. At NYBG, it's nature—or nowhere.

###

Major support for The Orchid Show: Mexican Modernism is provided by The Janet Traeger Salz Charitable Trust

The New York Botanical Garden is located at 2900 Southern Boulevard, Bronx, New York 10458. For more information, visit nybg.org.

The New York Botanical Garden is located on property owned in full by the City of New York, and its operation is made possible in part by public funds provided through the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs. A portion of the Garden's general operating funds is provided by The New York City Council and The New York State Office of Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation. The Bronx Borough President and Bronx elected representatives in the City Council and State Legislature provide leadership funding.

Media Contacts: Nick Leshi, nleshi@nybg.org
Patricia Sullivan, psullivan@nybg.org